

RUNNIN' RISKS!

DESPITE the prevalence of robbery, a few continue to keep money about their homes. In thus doing they are not only risking the loss of the money, but also their lives.

HOW much safer and better it would be if these people would bring their money to this bank.

YOU'RE not running this risk—are you?

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA

REFRIGERATORS

We have just received a big shipment of "RHINELANDER" Refrigerators. It is known as the "great one-piece stone lined and the ONLY perfect SANITARY refrigerator" on the market today.

All sizes await your selection. Prices range from

$7.50 TO $60.00

To further call your attention to this special line we will quote you SPECIAL PRICES all this month.

GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.

W. C. PAGE, Manager

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

T. M. FORD, Manager

Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.
NOGALES, - - - - ARIZONA.

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE

LOCAL NEWS.

The lease and furnishings of Hotel Brickwood are for sale.

Arthur Peck has purchased the Nogales Furniture & Supply Company.

Dr. W. F. Chenoweth returned Thursday from a flying business trip to Tucson.

Supervisor J. S. Gatlin has been here a couple of days from his ranch near Patagonia.

C. V. Fowler returned home Tuesday from El Paso, where he had been on private business.

Assistant Postmaster Riddle has been in Phoenix this week enjoying a visit with his family.

Cal Bates, the Douglas cattleman is a guest at the Montezuma hotel. He's here on cow business.

E. B. McEwen has sold his Nogales business, and gone to California, where he expects to spend the summer.

Mrs. Alice Luttrell, Grand Matron of the Eastern Star, after a delightful visit in the city, has departed for her home.

Attorney Fritz Bernard of Tucson, has been a guest at the National several days. Legal business brought him here.

The dance held at Fruitland Hall last Tuesday evening was a most delightful affair, say those who attended from Nogales.

This week Miss Armstrong, a charming young society lady of Phoenix, has been visiting in Nogales, a guest of Mrs. W. C. Wills.

Mrs. J. K. Wright returned home last Thursday from Tucson, where she and the children had been enjoying a visit with friends.

W. C. Page, manager of Geo. B. Marsh, Inc., has gone to Los Angeles, to meet Mrs. Page, who is spending the summer on the coast.

Thursday night Superintendent Kingsbury of the Sonora railway, returned from a run over the line as far south as Hermosillo.

Mrs. Herold, mother of Phil and Otto H. Herold, has returned from California, and will spend the summer in Nogales, with her sons.

The family of Mr. Edward Kress, of the Edward Kress Construction Co., will spend the summer months in Denver, at their old home.

Clarence Beatty was here several days during the week, from his ranch near Elgin, where he is engaged in the profitable business of stockraising.

The home of D. C. Brown, traffic city policeman, has been made happy by the arrival of a cute baby girl. Mother and little one doing nicely.

Tom Heady, manager of the great San Rafael ranch, was here from Lochiel the forepart of the week, having motored down to the county seat.

Ed. Legleu, wealthy young land and live stock owner, arrived from Carbo last Tuesday evening. He had been on a visit to his ranch, near Carbo.

The movement to improve and beautify the Nogales City Park is progressing nicely, four hundred dollars having already been placed in the Park fund.

Superior Court will convene on the 20th of June. The murder case of Wiley, Johns and Salazar, transferred from Pima county, will then be tried.

W. G. Bowman has this week been in Los Angeles on private business. Work is progressing nicely on his mammoth brick business house on Grand avenue.

T. P. Thompson has returned from Los Angeles, where he accompanied his wife and little daughter last week. The folks will spend the summer by the sea.

William McKnight, eldest son of Sheriff and Mrs. W. S. McKnight, is working a section in the postoffice. The local postoffice is doing a tremendous business.

Mrs. George H. Fiedler, who has been quite ill since returning from the coast, is greatly improved to the delight of her numerous friends and acquaintances.

Judge O. A. Wells, of Wisconsin, prominent Democratic politician and capitalist, is a visitor in the city, being chaperoned around by H. W. Kelsey, manager of the International Gas Co.

The $25,000 high school bond issue, last Thursday, carried by a handsome majority. When the new Nogales High School building is completed and furnished it will be one of the finest in the state.

Patagonia is arranging for a big Fourth of July celebration. All kinds of outdoor sports; also a drilling contest. Everybody is invited.

Former City Police Conway, who since leaving Nogales, has been at Globe, has this week been a visitor in the city. He may decide to return here to reside.

Edward Titcomb, Jr., has gone to Connecticut, where he will witness the graduating of his sister, Miss Josephine, next week at one of the big eastern colleges.

On June first the local Western Union Telegraph and Telephone Co., inaugurated an all night service, which is greatly appreciated by patrons of the company.

Herbert Wood, representing the R. J. Lester Company, went south yesterday morning, to Carbo and other points along the railway, on business for his company.

Everybody who can should be sure to register before going away for the summer. The women generally should make a greater effort than ever before to register.

James Gamble, U. S. line rider, stationed out at Lochiel, was here Monday on official business. He reported everything very quiet out in his district, on the international border.

Mrs. Wiswall, of Cananea, after a delightful visit at the pleasant home of American Consul and Mrs. Frederick Simpich, in Nogales, Sonora, has returned to the big copper camp.

Wednesday J. R. Halstead, of the J. D. Halstead Lumber Co., owners of many lumber yards in the state, one of which is located in Nogales, went to Tucson and Phoenix on company business.

The stag party given last Saturday night by J. G. Willoughby, at his bachelor home on Elm street, to a half dozen friends, was a joyous affair. Everybody declared the generous host a prince of entertainers.

E. J. Holden, the Nogales Shoe Doctor, is now manufacturing high-grade shoes for men and women. Workmanship and quality guaranteed. Nothing finer and better than Holden's handsome white shoes for summer.

Wednesday Supervisor George W. Parker, accompanied by his little son and adopted daughter, Miss Gates, came in from the Parker home in the beautiful San Rafael valley. Mr. Parker is a brother of Mrs. Frank J. Duffy.

Monday Paul S. Sprecher came in from his Elgin ranch and has since been here transacting private business. Paul is very enthusiastic over the future of his section, which he says is going to become one of the best in the county.

Mrs. Richardson, wife of Theron Richardson, cashier of the First National Bank of Nogales, and the lady's mother, Mrs. Land, departed the forepart of the week for Long Beach, to spend the summer enjoying the sea breezes.

Ed. Jones and Harry Hines, the brickmakers, have purchased from L. Ephraim, the splendid piece of land situated just north of the Monte Carlo, a short distance from Nogales, on the State Highway. Consideration not learned.

Tuesday morning Fred. Carrothers, manager, the United States Graphite Company, returned from Denver, Colorado, where he had motored on business and pleasure. He came home on the train. The Buick rode a freight car.

Mrs. Edwards, wife of J. W. Edwards, proprietor of the Pioneer Hardware House, accompanied by the children, departed Thursday, for the coast to enjoy the summer months. Jimmie has already made application to join the Summer Widowers.

The recount of the ballots cast at the recent municipal election May 22nd, last night at the Town Hall, resulted in giving Messrs. Edwards and Kelsey each another vote; so that the score as it now stands between Kelsey and Edwards, is Kelsey, 165; Edwards, 166. Captain Mix is still five votes ahead of Kelsey, who will take his contest case to the Superior Court. The recount last night was conducted by Messrs. Overton, Renshaw and Collins, and Assistant Town Clerk Smith. Barry & Barry, attorneys for Mix and Edwards, and Frazier & Johns, attorneys for Kelsey, were also present in the interest of their clients.

N. W. Bernard, the Arivaca live stock grower, was a business visitor in Nogales on Tuesday, having come up in his flivver, which he says can't be beat when it comes "getting just where one wants to go, when one wants to get there."

Vic Wager, Charley Hardy, A. W. Lohn and Charley Fowler, report having had a glorious time out in the country Memorial Day. They returned to Nogales Wednesday forenoon. The boys say they were royally treated. All are anxious to go again.

Bracey Curtis, president of the First National Bank of Nogales, now in the far east on a combined business and pleasure visit, will be in Chicago next week when the great Republican National convention convenes. Mr. Curtis is an alternate delegate from Santa Cruz county.

Monday Superintendent Chas. Bankard of the Duquesne Mining & Reduction Company, was a visitor at the county seat, being accompanied by Mrs. Bankard and the children. The Bankard home out on the banks of the Santa Cruz, is one the most attractive in the county.

Mrs. George Donald, accompanied by her accomplished daughter, Miss Dora, has returned home from Chicago, where the ladies have been spending several months. Mrs. Donald is an old-time resident of Nogales. She is the mother of Mrs. E. K. Cumming, Miss Dora, Fred. and Harry Haanah.

Ed. Hainline, a sure enough carpenter, who has for many years made his home at Patagonia, while working for mining companies near that place, was a county seat visitor last Wednesday. Ed. is loyal to his home town; says before many years it will be one of the biggest, best mining camps in the state.

August Yarik, of Patagonia, who with his associates, Neil and John McDonald, of Harshaw, a few months ago, disposed of a group of mining claims situated in the Santa Rita mountains, a short distance from Patagonia, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday, on a shopping expedition. Gus recently visited his niece in Texas. Said he had a fine visit.

Monday Attorney Frank J. Barry, Court Reporter Robert E. Lee, J. J. Rafael, and three other members of the local Knights of Columbus, returned from Bisbee, where they had been on lodge business, over Sunday. The cross country trip was made in Harry Haythorne's white's big seven passenger car, without mishap. All report having had a good trip to Arizona's greatest mining camp.

Lovely young ladies were busy Memorial Day tagging every body in sight, with Arizona bat-tieship tags. The money received will be donated to the $8,000 fund to pay for the silver service to be presented to the bat-tieship Arizona by the people of the state. The sum realized from the sale of tags in the different towns throughout the state on Tag Day, has not been learned. Tags sold in Nogales brought as much as ten dollars.

In this issue of THE BORDER VIDEtte appears the announcement of Judge Frank J. Duffy of Nogales, for nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, subject to be held September 12th, 1916. "Square Deal Duffy," is well known in every county in the state as a consistent Democrat, a high-class lawyer, and a man who, if nominated and elected, would make a fair and impartial Judge of the Supreme Court.

The quickness with which Colonel Sage, commander of the American army now stationed in Nogales, to guard American life and property against possible bandit raids, rushed troops out to the municipal water plant, last Monday night, upon receipt of a "false alarm," demonstrates beyond a doubt, that the "Fighting Twelfth" can be depended upon at all hours of the day or night. Colonel Sage is strong for "safety first." Nogales is for him, solid.

Contractor and Builder Omstead, with a large force of assistants, is busy on the new Auditorium, in the immense O'Keefe Building, corner of Morley avenue and Court street, formerly occupied by the Santa Cruz Garage. The new Auditorium which is owned by R. J. Lester and W. E. Karns, will be an up-to-the-minute skating rink, dancing hall and ice cream parlors. It is the intention of the owners, to make the place one of the finest amusement resorts of its kind in the state.

Those "banker boys" are there as strong as horse radish, when it comes to doing the strenuous for sweet charity's sake. "Every last one of 'em who took part in the ball game on Memorial Day, deserves first prize," said an enthusiastic local fan who was present.

Prospective candidates for nomination for county office, this fall are commencing to make excursions into the country. Monday that unbeatable Democratic war horse, A. E. Reddick, county recorder, chaperoned a bunch of the boys into the Elgin-Sonoma Canille district.

George Januel, proprietor of The Stag barber shop, who is interested in the Arizona European Mining Company, the splendid producing properties of which are situated in the Patagonias, adjoining the great Three R mines, has returned from the mines, where has been the past three weeks superintending the building of a new automobile road from the Nogales-Patagonia road to the mines. The cut-off shortens the distance from Nogales to Buena Vista about four miles.

Monday evening, after canvassing the returns of the municipal election held May 22nd, 1916, the Common Council declared the following persons elected members of the city council: Otto H. Herold, H. M. Clagett, Theron Richardson, J. A. Harrison, E. K. Cumming, L. W. Mix and J. W. Edwards; C. L. Fowler, Town Marshal; W. H. Smith, Town Clerk; A. L. Peck, Street Superintendent. The old council will meet next Monday night, at which time the newly elected municipal officers will assume charge of the city's affairs.

E. M. Stewart, well known successful Los Angeles mining engineer, who is interested in valuable mining property situated in the Patagonia mountains, has this week been a business visitor in Nogales, a guest at the National. Mr. Stewart, who is a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, has for a number of years been connected with one of America's biggest mining companies, both in Nevada and Arizona. The successful development of the properties near Patagonia, in which he and his associates are interested, means a great deal for Santa Cruz county.

Tom Gittins, one of the best known experienced millmen in this section of the country, who for some time past has been employed at the Bradford mine, near Patagonia, of which John Glasson of this city, is manager, has been enjoying a few days here with his family. He says work at the Bradford under Manager Glasson's personal supervision, is progressing nicely, with very satisfactory results. Mr. Glasson was for a number of years manager of the Richfield Copper Company's big properties in Sonora. His old-time friends will be pleased to know that he continues to "make good."

Last Saturday Dr. H. W. Purdy, city physician, returned from an extended business trip along the West Coast of Mexico, which he says was both pleasant and profitable. He was accompanied by his business associate, H. K. Chenoweth, of this place, and was gone six weeks. At Mazatlan, the doctor left his boat and made the return trip home on a special train carrying the wife and family of General Calles, military governor of Sonora. Next week Dr. Purdy will go to San Diego, thence by boat to the West Coast to fill a number of important contracts made on his recent visit to the south country.

SONOITA NEWS.

Help boost the Fair.

The Board of Directors meets regularly on the second Saturday of each month at Sonoita. The next meeting will be held June 10th, at 8 p. m.

For the coming Fair, the following heads of departments have been chosen: Live Stock, R. T. Fossett; Poultry, W. H. Collier; Farm Products, J. S. Carver; Machinery, Mark Manning; Home Economics, Miss Faye Carver; Better Babies Contest, Mrs. Manning. There remain a few yet to be appointed.

The next Fair Association dance will be given on the night of June 17th, at Sonoita in Floral Hall. The last dance was a complete success in every way and every one attending reported a good time. The next dance will be still better. Music will be furnished by the well known Canillo Orchestra. We hope to see a large crowd out.